Facebook for Seniors

[submitted by Roger Whiffin]

For those of my generation who do not and cannot comprehend why Facebook exists: -

I am trying to make friends outside of Facebook whilst applying the same principles. Therefore, every day I walk down the street and tell a passer by what I have eaten, how I feel at the moment, what I have done the night before, what I will do later, and with whom.

I give them pictures of my family, pets, and of me gardening, taking things apart in the garage, watering the lawn, standing in front of landmarks, driving around town, having lunch, and doing what anybody and everybody does every day.

I also listen to their conversations, give them the "thumbs up" and tell them that I like them. And it works just like Facebook. I already have four people following me:

two police officers, a private investigator, and a psychiatrist. [Ed—that may not be anything to do with Facebook]

Jericho

On ITV TV starting Thursday 7th January at 21:00 there is a new drama series starting called Jericho. It runs for 8 episodes.

Jericho was the name given to one of the navvy shanty towns in the 1870s that supported the community growing up around the construction of a viaduct on the Settle & Carlisle Railway.

Jericho was actually a settlement that existed.
